

Summer Job Opportunity with Free Dance Classes

Central Pennsylvania Youth Ballet

WANTED

Dormitory Directors and Resident Assistants

Since 1955, Central Pennsylvania Youth Ballet (Carlisle, Pennsylvania) has grown from a small, local dance studio to an internationally-renowned school of classical ballet. Under the guidance of Artistic Director Marcia Dale Weary, CPYB provides exceptional classical ballet training for beginning to pre-professional students. As one of the most prolific schools in the country, CPYB continually places dancers in the top companies in the world.

5-Week Summer Ballet Program

Saturday, June 23, 2012 - Saturday, July 28, 2012

CPYB's 5-Week Summer Program offers serious-minded ballet students the highest caliber of intensive classical training that brings together technique, strength, and artistry to meet the diverse demands of the art form. Students can expect to take up to three required technique classes daily, which may include pointe, variations, men's technique, modern, and partnering. Supplemental classes are offered during the evenings and weekends (such as Hip-Hop and Jazz), as well as informative seminars on topics that affect today's dancers.

Compensation

- Dormitory Director ($3,060) + 10 free classes per week + room & board
- Resident Advisor ($1,300) + 10 free classes per week + room & board
- In addition to compensation, Dormitory Director and Resident Advisors receive 10 free classes per week ($985 approximate value), as well as free room and board ($3,080 value).
- Hired staff must arrive Friday, June 15; depart Monday, July 30
