

ELON UNIVERSITY

Department of Performing Arts Dance Program

Department of Performing Arts, Assistant Professor of Dance. Elon University invites applications for a tenure-track Assistant Professor position in Ballet beginning mid-August 2012. Requirements include expertise in contemporary and/or classical ballet and pointe, significant and sustained research and teaching agenda related to ballet, evidence of creative activity in the contemporary and/or classical ballet genre, experience setting contemporary and/or classical ballet pieces on student dancers, experience directing dance concerts, advising students, and an M.F.A. in Dance. Teaching will include courses in ballet, pointe, choreography, additional courses in area of specialization, and courses in Elon's General Studies Program. Elon is a dynamic private, co-educational, comprehensive institution that is a national model for actively engaging faculty and students in teaching and learning. To learn more about Elon, please visit the university web site at www.elon.edu. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until position is filled. Applications must be received by December 31, 2011 to be assured of consideration. Send letter of application, CV, one page artist statement, one page teaching statement, contact information for three references and a link to a digital choreographic portfolio (YouTube channel, Vimeo or company website) featuring three examples of ballet choreography (each excerpt should be three – five minutes in length) to: Lauren Kearns, Chair of Search Committee at balletposition@elon.edu including in the subject line your name, please. Elon University is an equal employment opportunity employer committed to a diverse faculty, staff and student body and welcomes applicants from underrepresented groups.